

CLUB DISCUSSES SCHOOL PROBLEM

Gordon Addresses City Club, Giving Points About Kendall.

NEW LEVY OPPOSED

Claim Amendment Would Rob Tulsa and Other Cities of Large Sums.

Dr. J. M. Gordon, president of Henry Kendall college, addressed the City club yesterday noon at the regular weekly luncheon held at the Y. W. C. A., on "The Advantages of a General Education, and the Relation Existing Between Kendall and Tulsa."

"The advantages of general education are present everywhere," he said. "Better sanitary conditions and better health than our fathers knew is one example."

He reviewed briefly the history of Kendall and its future plans. He said that some people wanted their children graduated from a larger college than Kendall because it afforded them more "standing." "A boy or girl can learn just as much at Kendall as at any other school," he said, "and when sent there for the first two years of their college life and then finish or graduate in a larger school learn a great deal more than if they spent four years at a big school."

The Kendall academy which is run on a high school basis is growing rapidly, according to Dr. Gordon, and steps are being taken to affiliate it with the North Central association. "It is doing much to relieve the congestion at the high school and we hope to do more," he said.

"The relation now existing between the college and Tulsa is close," Dr. Gordon said, but it needs to be much closer. More co-operation is needed.

The proposed six mill levy amendment to the state constitution was discussed and explained by J. H. Brown. The amendment as explained by Mr. Brown gives the state equalization board the power to levy an ad valorem tax of not less than six nor more than 10 mills on all the school districts. This tax is paid into the board and then distributed back to the districts per capita, giving each district about $15 for each school child.

If the amendment is adopted it would rob Tulsa district of about $170,000 a year, according to Mr. Brown. Oklahoma City, which has a higher valuation, would lose about $150,000. All of the richer districts would lose, he said.

"The amendment will not relieve the situation now present," he continued. "What it does do is give the money to the poorer districts, with an injury to the districts that raise more money. No school district in the state is taxed to the limit and then lacks sufficient funds."

"The proposed amendment would make the situation worse rather than helping it," he said. Mr. Brown said that he favored an amendment to the constitution giving each school district the power to levy its school tax and to levy as little or as much as it wished, and to let each district spend the money which it levied. This would leave it with the people of the district as to whether they wanted good schools or poor ones.

DENIES TAKING PHONOGRAPH

Llewellyn Sent to Jail Under Bond for Preliminary Hearing.

Charged with stealing a phonograph valued at $60, Lewis Llewellyn entered a plea of not guilty at his arraignment before Justice H. J. Gray yesterday. The prisoner was committed to the county jail under bond of $1,000 for preliminary hearing August 5.

Mrs. Phillip Stone, the complaining witness, claims Llewellyn roomed at her home, 1628 East Fourth street, and that on July 22, after she had left the house with the intention of going to St. Louis, she unexpectedly returned and found the defendant had stolen the phonograph from her house and sold it to a local pawnshop.

Try This If You Have Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This dissolves it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and long and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—Adv.

Judge J. A. Denny, who had been acting judge in Judge Moroney's absence asked to be relieved because his other business was too pressing. Judge Prentice said that he did not want the position, and only accepted it because he wanted to help clean up the city. "As judge of the municipal court I am going to do all in my power to drive the crooks and undesirable characters from Tulsa by making it so hot for them that they won't want to stay," Judge Prentice said yesterday.

CITY MUST PAY WELLS JUDGMENT

Case in Which Boy Wins $22,000 Damage Suit Is Affirmed.

Affirming the judgment of the trial court awarding Paul Wells, a 12-year-old boy, judgment of $22,000 against the city of Tulsa for permanent injuries sustained by the boy July 14, 1917, when he was struck by a fire truck, a mandate was received in district court yesterday in which it was ordered that the city pay the amount to Catharine Wells, mother of the petitioner.

Wells was riding a bicycle west on Third street, according to the testimony introduced at the trial, which closed December 11, 1918, and was attempting to turn the vehicle to the side of the street in an effort to escape from a fire truck when the front wheel of the bicycle was caught in a defective portion of the street pavement and the boy was thrown under the truck. The injuries proved to be of a permanent nature, his right side having been partially paralyzed. A suit brought against the Tulsa Street Railways company for damages was not successful and later a suit was filed against the city asking judgment for $100,000.
